Program Description and Justification
Provide a brief description and justification of the program, including highlights of the program objectives, and the careers, occupations, or further educational opportunities for which the program will prepare graduates, when appropriate.

The Department of the Classics undergraduate minors have been in place for over 10 years and has mirrored four of the five concentrations offered in the Classics major (Greek, Latin, Classical Civilization, Classical Archaeology). The department has now proposed (via a separate proposal) to revise the five concentrations in the major and create two concentrations instead: Classical Languages and Classical Civilizations. Within these concentrations, students can choose to focus on Greek, Latin, or both (Classical Languages) or Classical Civilizations (wherein students can elect a track in Mediterranean Archaeology, or no specialization/track). To mirror the changes in the BALAS Classics major, we are proposing to reconfigure the Classics minor into two minors instead of the existing four, with 18 hours required in each, as before. The existing language minors (Greek or Latin) become one called Classical Languages where students can choose to focus on Greek (Ancient or Modern) or Latin. From the two existing civilization minor (Classical Civilization, Classical Archaeology), we are creating one minor called Classical Civilizations where students can take civilization and/or archaeology classes.

Students have found having 4 undergraduate minors to choose from confusing. In response, the department has decided to revise its undergraduate offerings (major and minors). It is our goal to streamline the required courses for students and provide flexibility to students.

Please include how the proposed minor requires some depth in the subject, but not as extensive as the major.

Classics Minor offers the opportunity to students to study Classical Languages or Civilizations by taking classes on languages or civilization through the advanced level but not in the same depth and breadth as the major where students specialize in deeper knowledge by taking more classes and at the more advanced levels.

Is This a Teacher Certification Program?

No

Will specialized accreditation be sought for this program?

No

Enrollment

Will the department limit enrollment to the minor?

No
Describe how the department will monitor the admission to/enrollment in the minor.

We monitor admission to the minor by meeting all prospective minors and advising them through the Director of Undergraduate Studies who signs the Minor Declaration Form before submitting to LAS. All Classics majors and minors are advised by the Director of Undergraduate Studies in the Department.

Are there any prerequisites for the proposed minor?

No

Program Regulation

Describe how the program is aligned with or meets licensure, certification, and/or entitlement requirements, if applicable.
Briefly describe the plan to assess and improve student learning, including the program’s learning objectives; when, how, and where these learning objectives will be assessed; what metrics will be used to signify student’s achievement of the stated learning objectives; and the process to ensure assessment results are used to improve student learning.

The Director of Undergraduate Studies in collaboration with the Committee on Undergraduate Study and the Head of the Department lead the assessment work. All juniors and seniors will be evaluated based on their submission of a portfolio of papers produced for 300-400 level courses in the Spring semesters (including minors, not just majors). An alumni survey in addition to a junior survey is conducted every year.

Student learning objectives and metrics:
1. Acquire a detailed knowledge of the culture of Ancient Greek, Roman, and neighboring languages and civilizations, especially the broader historical, social, and cultural contexts and their development.

2. Acquire familiarity with contemporary methods of cultural and historical analysis to facilitate self-directed inquiry of Ancient Greek, Roman, and neighboring cultures.

3. Acquire an awareness of the place of Ancient Greek, Roman, and neighboring cultures in the western tradition in order to understand connections between past and present.

4. Acquire an appreciation of how the careful engagement with other cultures can facilitate new ways of understanding and interpreting one’s own contemporary culture.

Is the career/profession for graduates of this program regulated by the State of Illinois?

No

Program of Study

"Baccalaureate degree requires at least 120 semester credit hours or 180 quarter credit hours and at least 40 semester credit hours (60 quarter credit hours) in upper division courses" (source: https://www.ibhe.org/assets/files/PrivateAdminRules2017.pdf). For proposals for new bachelor's degrees, if this minimum is not explicitly met by specifically-required 300- and/or 400-level courses, please provide information on how the upper-division hours requirement will be satisfied.

An undergraduate minor should consist of at least 16 - and no more than 21 hours - of course work, with at least 6 hours of 300- or 400-level courses. Except clearly remedial offerings, prerequisite courses within the sponsoring unit count towards the total; prerequisite courses outside the sponsoring unit do not count toward this total. The unit sponsoring the minor and that unit's college may set educationally necessary prerequisites for eligibility for the minor within these constraints. Does this proposal meet these criteria?

Yes

All proposals must attach the new or revised version of the Academic Catalog program of study entry. Contact your college office if you have questions.
