Additional concentration notes (e.g., estimated enrollment, advising plans, etc.)

The programs in Art History and Art Education have requested that the Writing Studies floating graduate concentration be removed as an option in their program of study, due to the fact that no students in these programs have opted for the concentration in at least the last decade, and they do not anticipate that future students will want to do so. The concentration is also being removed as an option from the programs of study for the EPOL MA and MEd, and CAS, because this concentration is a doctoral-level one only; thus, the concentration should never have been attached to these Masters-level programs. EPOL wishes to continue to offer the floating concentration as an option in its PhD and EdD programs, however. The concentration is offered by the Center for Writing Studies, which is an independent unit in LAS.

Dear Yoon and Alan:

I’m writing on behalf of LAS to confirm that your units are requesting to remove the floating concentration (graduate) in Writing Studies from the following programs:

Art Education PhD
Art History PhD

Education Policy, Organization, and Leadership CAS
Education Policy, Organization, and Leadership EdM
Education Policy, Organization, and Leadership MA

I have email correspondence from Paul Prior, and from Ellen de Waard, regarding these removals, but the grad college would like unit-level (EO) direct confirmation for inclusion in the CIM-P system.

If you could either reply to this email or send me a separate message confirming that you wish to remove the concentration from your programs listed above, I would appreciate it. Thanks very much for your time!

Sincerely,

Kelly

Dear Kelley,

Yes, Art + Design is requesting to remove the floating concentration (graduate) in Writing Studies from Art Education and Art History. At this time Art History would like to retain Medieval Studies.

Hi all,

Clearly, the concentration (which is at the doctoral level) cannot be attached to MA, EDM, and CAS programs.

I don’t have a strong feeling one way or the other about the EdD question. Generally speaking, can EdD students take PhD concentrations?

Best,

Paul

Thanks Paul. We'll need to append a brief letter from me to this and then officially send both to Allison. I'll try to get that done before the end of this week; copying Amy Elli as she has the template with my signature for such items. EPC won't meet again until January 22nd, but we might as well get the rest moving in the meantime.

Kelly

Subject: Proposal to add EPOL to the CWS Writing Studies Concentration

Dear Kelly and Allison,

We are submitting this proposal to you both at this point, knowing that LAS needs to first sign off on it and that the Graduate College then needs to approve it next before it goes to Gay at Ed Pol.

Please let us know if you have any questions at this point.

Sincerely,

Paul

Hi Kelly and Mary,

Art and Design has indicated that they would like to remove this concentration.

We’ll want to bundle this with the correction to the EPOL change. I don’t think that the EdD is a likely degree but it broadly seems to be possible (i.e., there is a dissertation). In any case, we should bring Yoon Pak as Interim Head of EPOL into the conversation at this point so she knows about the corrections needed on the MA level programs and to see what EPOL thinks about the EdD.

Given this bundle of adjustments, will CWS initiate the changes through LAS as the first step?

Best,

Paul

Subject: removal request concentration - Academic Catalog

Dear Dr. Prior,

The School of Art + Design wishes to remove the Writing Studies concentration from the Academic Catalog degree listing in our PhD programs in Art Education and Art History.
Assistant Dean Ritter has referred me to you to assist with this request. Please let me know what kind of action needs to be taken.
Thank you very much.
