EP.20.162 Report of Administrative Approvals through April 13, 2020

Senate committees are authorized to act for and in the name of the Senate on minor matters. Below is a listing of the administrative approvals the Senate Committee on Educational Policy approved at its meeting on April 13, 2020. Additional information for each approval is attached.

A. Undergraduate Programs

1) BS in Recreation, Sport and Tourism, Tourism Management Concentration – update the Program of Study listing in the Academic Catalog to accurately reflect the credit hours for one of the concentration-required courses, RST 450, Tourism Planning & Development, which was recently approved for a credit-hour reduction from 4 to 3 hours. There is no change to the total required hours for the major.

Program Description and Justification

Justification for proposal change:

RST 450 (Tourism Planning & Development) has been approved to be changed from 4 credit hours to 3 credit hours. This change is appropriate given the work load of the course. The aspect of the course that included working closely with a travel-type agency (and a great deal of out-of-class time) has been removed. We feel our students are getting a lot of contact with agencies in their other courses and this was no longer necessary in this particular course. This change also makes all three concentrations similar in terms of course credits earned.
Is this program interdisciplinary?

Program of Study

“Baccalaureate degree requires at least 120 semester credit hours or 180 quarter credit hours and at least 40 semester credit hours (60 quarter credit hours) in upper division courses” (source: https://www.ibhe.org/assets/files/PrivateAdminRules2017.pdf). For proposals for new bachelor’s degrees, if this minimum is not explicitly met by specifically-required 300- and/or 400-level courses, please provide information on how the upper-division hours requirement will be satisfied.

All proposals must attach the new or revised version of the Academic Catalog program of study entry. Contact your college office if you have questions.

Reggie Alston (alston) (Fri, 03 Apr 2020 16:00:47 GMT): Rollback: Hi Kim, I agree with the change being proposed, but you probably need to add to the justification. Specifically, explain why the workload is now perceived as being worthy of only 3 credits. What has changed from years past? Also, include the revised syllabus. Lastly, you are required to provide a side-by-side comparison of the change in the program of study section of the proposal. Please make these minor changes and I'll approve. Thanks.

Kathy Martensen (kmartens) (Tue, 07 Apr 2020 13:34:23 GMT): Administrative approval: No change to total hours required for the degree, no restriction in options for students.

Introduction

Tourism has become one of the world’s largest business sectors, and consequently many industries rely on tourism to boost their businesses. Moreover, tourism is often an integral element in development policies and has been widely adopted as a catalyst of economic and community development. Students will examine and discuss current issues and future challenges regarding tourism development and destination management. In particular, students will be challenged to critically analyze the interdependence between tourism development and the economy, culture, society, the natural environment, globalization, new technology, and sustainability. In addition, students will be expected to understand and apply key principles of tourism planning and destination management to effectively address current issues and trends.

Objectives

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. articulate the relationship between tourism, development, and planning;

2. describe key economic, socio-cultural, and environmental issues related to tourism development;

3. understand and apply the fundamental principles of the tourism planning process;

4. apply key techniques of tourism planning to cases in areas such as market analysis, product analysis, regional tour design, tourism experience development, and marketing plan.;
5. evaluate the event portfolio and its leverage effects on tourism development and destination management;

6. evaluate the interrelationship between globalization and tourism development;

7. examine the impacts of new technology on tourism development and management;

8. assess the sustainable tourism practices in destinations by using the triple bottom line principles.

Modules

MODULE 1: Fundamentals of Tourism, Development, and Planning (Week 1)

This module lays the foundation for all that follows. It begins with the relationship between tourism, development, and planning. The module then discusses some basic concepts of tourism development and planning, including tourism system, experience, demand and supply, etc.

MODULE 2: Tourism Development Issues (Week 2-3)

This module surveys the dynamic interdependence between tourism and economy, society, culture, and environment in destinations.

MODULE 3: Planning for Tourism Development (Week 4-10)

This module explores key principles of tourism planning and development. It includes basic concepts of tourism planning, key issues and techniques in tourism planning, e.g., stakeholders, product analysis, marketing and branding, etc.

MODULE 4: Challenges and Trends (Week 11-16)

The course concludes by examining vital issues and trends. The first is the emerging importance of event portfolios and strategic leverage of events for tourism development. The second is the interrelationship between globalization and tourism. The third is the impacts of new technology on tourism development and management. The fourth is the vital role of triple bottom line sustainability.

Readings

There are six required chapter readings in this class and three cases from The Case Center for case analysis assignments. The six chapter readings are available on the compass website of this course. Students are required to buy the three cases from the Case Center as instructed below.
Cases
Student can register for the cases at The Case Centre

Activity Assignments are designed to encourage critical thinking and participation in this course. Specific activities are assigned with ensuring discussions from all class members during class time. Each student has opportunities to interact and consider the key questions in the course. These assignments can be in-class or after class.

Grading

All the after-class assignments must be submitted through Compass.

If students have any questions about the grading of the assignment, they must talk to the instructor within two weeks after the assignment is returned.

Submission deadlines will be strictly enforced. Extensions will only be granted on medical or compassionate grounds and will not be otherwise granted except in the most extreme circumstances. A request for extension must be made in writing to the instructor and must be approved prior to the due date of the assignment. Extensions will not be granted unless it has been approved in writing by the instructor.
Final grades will be assigned as follows:

- 970 - 1000 = A+
- 920 - 969.9 = A
- 880 - 919.9 = A-
- 850 - 879.9 = B+
- 820 - 849.9 = B
- 780 - 819.9 = B-
- 750 - 779.9 = C+
- 720 - 749.9 = C
- 680 - 719.9 = C-
- 600 - 679.9 = D
- below 600 = F

Administration and Expectations

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is the pursuit of scholarly and creative activity in an open, honest, and responsible manner, free from fraud and deception. Plagiarism or other forms of academic dishonesty will result in penalties according to Section 4, Article 1 of the Code of Policies and Regulations Applying to All Students (http://www.admin.uiuc.edu/policy/code). Students who do not understand relevant definitions of academic infractions contained in Section 4, Article 1 must contact one of the instructors for further explanation during the first week of class.

Attendance

Attendance is a critical component of success in this course. It is essential for exposure to, and retention of, materials not covered in the readings. In addition, it provides students the opportunity to learn from one another through class discussions.

Consequently, unexcused absences will result in deduction of attendance points of this class. Students are allowed to have two unexcused absences with 10 points each to be deducted. Over two unexcused absences will result in zero of the attendance points. Students will receive extra 5 bonus points for full attendance during the whole semester.

Usage of Mobile Devices

RST faculty expects that all students are fully engaged with classroom activities and presentations, thereby contributing to a climate engagement throughout the class. Thus, using a cell phone, working on assignments for other courses, reading newspapers or books, doing email, surfing the internet, playing computer games, or sleeping are unacceptable. Any student who engages in behaviors, such as these, which are inconsistent with full engagement in class activities, will result in loss of points and/or may be asked to leave.

Special Needs Accommodation

To obtain disability-related academic adjustments and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the course instructor and the Division of Disability Resources.
and Educational Services (DRES) as soon as possible. In accordance with ADA and the Student Code (http://admin.illinois.edu/policy/code/), I will make reasonable accommodations for all students with disabilities who request these services. As noted in the Student Code (Article 1, Part 1, § 1-110b):

In general, it is the responsibility of students to make their status as a person with a disability and their need for accommodations known. All requests for reasonable accommodations should be directed to the DRES Student Services Office (333-4603 or disability@uiuc.edu). The determination of reasonable accommodations will be based upon an individual student’s needs. Academic accommodations shall be developed in consultation with the faculty member for whose course the accommodations are sought.

Emergency planning
The Department of Homeland Security and the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign Office of Campus Emergency Planning recommend the following three responses to any emergency on campus: RUN > HIDE > FIGHT. Detailed instructions are available at: http://police.illinois.edu/emergency/response/. The emergency response guide can be downloaded from: http://dps.illinois.edu/emergencyplanning/emergresponseguide.pdf
