IV. PUBLIC COMMENT

No requests received.

V. SENATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CHAIR'S REMARKS

Senate Executive Committee (SEC) Chair Jeffrey Eric Jenkins (FAA) thanked everyone for keeping shared governance and the University moving in a positive direction. Work on several processes related to research policy, educational policy, and statutory enfranchisement will continue into the summer and next fall as the transition of leadership occurs in the Office of the Provost. Jenkins thanked William Bernhard for his steady, thoughtful leadership while serving as the Interim Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs and Provost.

Jenkins encouraged senators to serve next year on Senate Committees, where most of the business of shared governance is done. This type of service is a terrific way to learn how the University functions. The Senate is also seeking parliamentarians.

VI. CHANCELLOR'S REMARKS

Chancellor Robert Jones commented on the aggressive search process to hire the next Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs and Provost. Chancellor Jones was pleased to announce last week that John Coleman would serve as the next Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs and Provost beginning in July. Jones expressed his gratitude to all those who participated in the aggressive and successful search process to fill this critically important role. Chancellor Jones also thanked Bernhard for his service as Interim Provost. Bernhard's lead with vision and thoughtfulness and continued to move the academic mission of the University forward.

The end of the semester is very stressful. Please be sure to take care of yourself and others as needed. Resources are available for students through The Counseling Center and Office of the Dean of Students, and for employees through the Faculty/Staff Assistance and Well-Being Services.

Chancellor Jones invited everyone to attend the Conversation with Senior Leadership at noon on April 25 in the Illinois Ballroom of the I-Hotel and Conference Center. Graduate College Dean Wojtek Chodzko-Zajko will serve as moderator for this conversation.

Chancellor Jones thanked senators and Senate committee members for their service and participation in an effective and respectful shared governance system. Jones specifically noted SEC Chair Jeffrey Jenkins, SEC Vice-Chair Jon Hale, and Presiding Officer of the Senate George Friedman. Friedman added his thanks to the Office of the Senate staff.

VII. QUESTIONS

Faculty Senator Forsyth (ENGR) and Chair of the Senate Committee on Academic Freedom and Tenure (AF) noted the procedures for imposing severe sanctions other than dismissal on a member of the faculty outlined in Article IX, Section 6 of the University Statutes. Does the Chancellor agree that a member of the faculty as defined in the Statutes can only be suspended from their duties as a faculty member by following the process defined in Article IX, Section 6 or that of Article X, Section 1.e.8? Has the Chancellor acted to ensure that the administration in general understands the constraints the Statutes place on suspending faculty members?

Chancellor Jones stated that the University Statutes are the fundamental governing documents for due process when considering disciplinary actions for tenure system faculty. The articles of the Statutes that govern when to impose severe sanctions on tenured faculty are very clear and Article X of the Statutes provides a mechanism to reassign the duties of a faculty member under the exceptional circumstances mentioned by Forsyth. Senior leadership will continue to work with the Senate Committee on General University Policy (GP) and the Senate Committee on Academic Freedom and Tenure (AF) as they have done over the last several years. Chancellor Jones noted the collaborative work that was completed on Provost's Communication 20 with GP and AF. Senior leadership will continue to work with relevant Senate committees to ensure there is a complete unwavering understanding of the application of these articles and processes when they are warranted.
