Geoffrey Herman, Provost Fellow, Office of the Provost, attended to discuss the proposed teaching feedback and evaluation process.

EP.25.061, Discussion of Learning Outcomes Questions in Course Inventory Management (CIM) for Existing Programs

Due to an update of the CIM software, proposals after a particular date would ask revised learning outcome questions. Proposals in process prior to the update would have not the revised questions. The committee voted to not return the proposals without the revised questions as there were only a few proposals in the system at the time of the updated. The committee discussed which of the CIM-P questions would be considered mandatory for revisions to existing programs. The committee decided that only the first question asking the program to state its learning outcomes be required.
