Proposal Title
Effective Catalog: Fall 2024
Program Justification

Provide a brief description of what changes are being made to the program.

1) Revisions to the Psychological Foundations course list to expand course selection from 12 course-list to any 400 level course in EPSY or EPSY 553. Also, includes 2 additional courses in the Philosophical and Social Foundation select from list.

2) Additionally, we have reorganized portions of the program of study for clarity.

3) We also have added the statement, "Master's degree students must take at least one course outside of their degree-granting department".

4) We are also removing the off-campus modality.

5) We are adding the ability to earn the graduate concentration in Trauma-Informed Practice and Pedagogy to students in this degree program.

Did the program content change 25% or more in relation to the total credit hours, since the 2020-2021 catalog. (http://catalog.illinois.edu/archivedacademiccatalogs/2020-2021/)

No
Why are these changes necessary?

1) Student feedback has resulted in these changes. EPSY Foundations courses were not offered online and thus were not accessible to students. By eliminating the requirement to take specific courses, students will have access to a greater variety of courses and some will be offered online. We have kept EPSY 553, Global Issues in Learning as an option for students to take. Global Issues in Learning addresses issues of learning in different contexts. It is also cross-listed with EPOL 523, which allows many students to take the course. Having a 500 level class in the offerings also allows master’s degree students in education to count it as one of their 500 level courses.

We added CI 446 and 501 under the Philosophical and Social Foundations to provide more options to students. By requiring students to take at least one course in another dept, students will broaden their content knowledge in education to understand different disciplinary perspectives.

2) The phrase regarding 400/500 level hours required (originally located under the Elective hours) is not needed, since only 400-500 level courses can count towards the degree. Since foundation courses are being counted towards the 500 level requirement, the statement had moved to the Other Requirements section for clarity.

3) We have added the statement, "Master’s degree students must take at least one course outside of their degree-granting department" to encourage critical thinking and consider multiple perspectives through different disciplinary lenses.

4) We are removing the off-campus modality because we offer several courses in an online format and the off-campus modality is no longer necessary.

5) The concentration (key 1230) will introduce students to the incidence, impact, and causes of trauma in children including individual trauma and systems of oppression, bias, and discrimination present in our education system. Participants will learn to recognize the signs of trauma and how to use trauma-informed practices, while recognizing and seeking to eliminate the causes of trauma in their circle of influence and in the larger education system.

There will be no change in total hours for the program.

Good morning, Lori. After reviewing the proposed revisions to the COE master’s degree programs, I support the changes and believe that students will benefit by expanding the options for foundational courses. Please let me know if you need anything else from me before these revisions can move forward. Thanks.

Under the Illinois Freedom of Information Act any written communication to or from university employees regarding university business is a public record and may be subject to public disclosure.

Hi Matt,

Welcome to the college!

I work in the Graduate Programs Office and provide support to our Academic Programs Committee (APC). The APC is responsible for reviewing new or revised programs/courses in the college and making decisions that affect academic policies and programs in the college. Part of my responsibilities with APC include coordinating meetings and provide training to the CIM programs/course system (application to submit new proposals or revise existing courses or programs). If proposals involve multiple programs across departments across the college, I work to submit the proposals on behalf of the departments. This does not happen very often, since most of the proposals affect one department and they have a faculty member who is initiating or sponsoring the proposal.

Last semester in the spring, meetings were organized by the departments to revise our 12 existing master’s degree programs. Our master’s degree programs in the college have a core set requirements that affect all master degree programs in our college. For example, in the course catalog, our current EPOL EdM requirements are found here [http://catalog.illinois.edu/graduate/education/education-policy-organization-leadership-edm/#degreerequirementstext]. The CI EdM [http://catalog.illinois.edu/graduate/education/curriculum-instruction-edm/#degreerequirementstext] has the same core requirements. SPED EdM [http://catalog.illinois.edu/graduate/education/special-education-edm/#degreerequirementstext] also has the same core requirements with additional courses for their students. There are 12 master’s degree programs in the college.

Last semester, the departments gathered together to revise the 12 existing master’s degree programs to provide students with more options to complete the foundation requirements. The proposal was presented to our APC committee who voted to approve and move forward with the revisions. Over summer, I began the process of submitting the 12 proposals through the CIM, since this revision reflected all of the departments in the college.

In order for me to submit the proposals, I need a letter of support from every Department Head in our college. The letter of support can simply be a reply to this email. I am copying Kary Zarate on this email. Kary represents the SPED program on our APC committee. I am also copying Sarah McCarthey on this email. Last semester, she was the CI Department Head and played an integral part at the meetings for the program revisions. She will be able to answer any specific questions you may have about the revisions. Below is the letter of support I have sent to departments of EPOL, CI, and EPSY. I have received their letters of support. In order to move forward, I will need a letter of support from SPED. Please let me know if you have any questions.
