EP.27.036 Report of Changes in Temporary Admission Status through September 28, 2026

Listed below are changes in temporary suspensions to admissions status (including adding, removing, or extending such an extension) reported at the August 31, 2026 meeting of the Senate Committee on Educational Policy (EP). Additional information for each proposal is attached.

A. Graduate Programs

- 1. Temporary Suspension of Admission to the Master of Sustainable Urban Design in Sustainable Urban Design in the College of Fine and Applied Arts and the Graduate College (key 612) -
Temporarily suspend admission to the MUSD program. No students will be admitted for AY 2027-2028. The plan is for a one year temporary suspension of admission, with no recruitment during AY 2026-2027. During this year, the department will further evaluate the future of the program. No students have been enrolled in the program since spring 2024 (cohort of 5 graduated). The program had intended to recruit a cohort of 20 students, 75% of who were non-residents or international each year in this one-year program. It was designed for program for architects, landscape architects, and planners (individuals who hold bachelor's degrees related to the design of the built environment) who wanted to enhance their skills and knowledge regarding sustainability and urban design. The expected demand for the degree was from international professionals and in the time the program was developed (2015-2018), opportunities from their agencies or firms to finance one year of graduate education who would travel to the US was more common. Now that it is 2026 and the landscape for education and international mobility has changed, a thorough review from the department is necessary.

An intentional pause in admissions will enable the department and college to further review the program's intended audience and requirements and determine if a redesign or deactivation is justified.

If a program redesign is imagined than in August 2027, a removal of the temporary suspension will be submitted so that recruitment will occur in AY 2027-2028 for Fall 2028 admission.

If a program deactivation is determined to be justified, that will be submitted instead.

Program Justification

Provide a brief description, using a numbered item list, of the proposed changes to the program.

Provide a list of numbered items of what changed and why each change was necessary.

Temporarily suspend admission to the MUSD program. No students will be admitted for AY 2027-2028. The plan is for a one year temporary suspension of admission, with no recruitment during AY 2026-2027. During this year, the department will further evaluate the future of the program. No students have been enrolled in the program since spring 2024 (cohort of 5 graduated). The program had intended to recruit a cohort of 20 students, 75% of who were non-residents or international each year in this one-year program. It was designed for program for architects, landscape architects, and planners (individuals who hold bachelor's degrees related to the design of the built environment) who wanted to enhance their skills and knowledge regarding sustainability and urban design. The expected demand for the degree was from international professionals and in the time the program was developed (2015-2018), opportunities from their agencies or firms to finance one year of graduate education who would travel to the US was more common. Now that it is 2026 and the landscape for education and international mobility has changed, a thorough review from the department is necessary.

An intentional pause in admissions will enable the department and college to further review the program's intended audience and requirements and determine if a redesign or deactivation is justified.

If a program redesign is imagined than in August 2027, a removal of the temporary suspension will be submitted so that recruitment will occur in AY 2027-2028 for Fall 2028 admission.

If a program deactivation is determined to be justified, that will be submitted instead.
