SA STUDENT NOMINEES

A. Newman, Jarrett (GRAD)

I am interested in serving to ensure the student code of conduct is legible and accessible to students. Too often students take the code of conduct for granted and do not read it until they find themselves in some form of trouble. As an educator, archivist, and museum professional, I believe it's critical to communicate big, abstract, or confusing ideas and concepts as clearly and directly as possible. This allows students who are in the process of developing critical thinking skills to better understand complicated language. I also want to serve as a way of ensuring that the student code reflects the realities of being a young person navigating life away from family for the first, an international student figuring out a new country and place, or a graduate student who's transitioning back into academia after working in the corporate world. I am grateful for your consideration of my service.

B. Rogers-Kane, Med (GRAD)

As a TA, I made instructional materials and facilitated discussions to help teach fellow students academic integrity rules. My University Senate work as a Senator at UIUC has strengthened my understanding of institutional governance and the importance of developing policies that serve our community. The Student Conduct’s committee's 2024–2025 annual report documents substantive work on hazing provisions and student organization governance. Building on this policy work, I am interested in during the 2026-2027 building on prior years work to help the university can address emerging challenges, including generative AI, while ensuring students understand their academic integrity obligations. I would bring the committee both experience in academic integrity education and a governance perspective focused on clear standards, fair application, and a campus culture of integrity and accountability.

C. Merkel, Nathan (GRAD)

I am interested in serving on this committee to better evolve, develop, and mold my service aptitude within (and in the future, outside of) the University of Illinois. I have recently served as the Graduate Student Representative within the RST Department where I was responsible for communicating department wide initiatives to all PhD students, as well as representing the PhD students' interests as a whole. I am also serving as an Undergraduate Research Apprenticeship Mentor where I will personally mentor an undergraduate student through the process of academic research. I bring a wide range of experience within and outside of academia that can provide useful, yet critical, viewpoints for the committee. I have helped develop conduct related policies in the past through my work as a Regional Manager for a private sporting camp company. Thank you so much for the opportunity to apply, I look forward to hearing from you.

D. Zarei, Pedram (GRAD)

With extensive student-level experience in leadership and administrative roles, I, as the nominee, think that I would be able to help the Council on Student Conduct Expectations and Accountability committee within the senate. A list of positions I have held during this past 2 years of my PhD studies is as follows:1. Society for Study of Reproduction (SSR) Trainee Affairs Committee (2026-2027)2. Society for Study of Reproduction (SSR) Public Affairs Committee (2026-2027)4. President of ANSC GSA at UIUC (Spring 26 – present)5. Vice President of ANSC GSA at UIUC (Spring and fall 2025)6. Grad representative for the ANSC DEI committee at UIUC (Fall 25 – present)7. Graduate College’s Student Advisory Board, SAGE at UIUC (Students Advising on Graduate Education, 2025 – 2026 School Year)I would like to contribute more to my college, the senate and the university in an active way.

MEC FACULTY NOMINEES

A. Wilson, Roderick (LAS)

Roderick Wilson is an associate professor in the Departments of History and East Asian Languages and Cultures and has served as EALC’s Faculty Senate representative since 2023. A U.S. Army veteran, he served as an infantryman (11B), completing two years of active duty and nearly six years in the National Guard. He paid for his undergraduate degree with the GI Bill, an experience that informs his commitment to students who serve. ROTC cadets and student veterans regularly enroll in his general education courses, such as East Asian Civilizations and Modern Japanese History, giving him firsthand insight into the perspectives these students bring to the classroom. A recipient of the History Department’s Queen Award for Excellence in Teaching and former chair of the EALC Curriculum Committee, he hopes to draw on his military and academic experience to support the Council’s work on behalf of these students.
