Program Justification

Provide a brief description, using a numbered item list, of the proposed changes to the program.

Provide a list of numbered items of what changed and why each change was necessary.

This concentration is being phased down effective SP27 and a name change to Law, Policy, and Institutions (Key 1418) has been created in its place.

These changes reflect a revision of the concentration to (1) broaden and internationalize its focus beyond US institutions to global comparative institutions, and to (2) more explicitly examine legal institutions and law, how law affects institutions, policy, and politics, and how politics affects law and legal institutions. This change is pedagogically valuable because it puts US institutions in comparative perspective, providing students broader substantive knowledge and understanding of how institutions develop and function in different environments. The revision also serves to better ground student learning in foundational constitutional and legal knowledge.
