Format your response like the following "This BS proposal (key 567) is related to the Concentration A proposal (key 145)"

New FA 27 BAUSP concentrations being proposed in approval workflow alongside the BAUSP revision (key 148): Environmental Planning and Design (key 1421); Transportation (key 1423); and Housing, Community and Economic Development (key 1422);
Old BAUSP concentrations being deactivated in workflow:
Sustainability (key 690); Global Cities (key 687); Social Justice (key 689); Policy & Planning (key 688)

Also related to the BAUSP/MUP joint program as a revision in workflow: key 943.

Program Justification

Provide a brief description, using a numbered item list, of the proposed changes to the program.

Provide a list of numbered items of what changed and why each change was necessary.

The Department of Urban and Regional Planning proposes eliminating its current four undergraduate concentrations, the current proposal being one of the four.

The BAUSP social justice concentration has been revised 7 times since March 2019. The initial development of the concentration intended to have a gateway and workshop course, along with an elective option. However, over the years challenges with such specificity of courses when social justice is such a broad concept that the number of courses added to the list of concentration options went from 4 to 10. Overlap among the 4 concentrations led to students declaring multiple concentrations and new policies to prevent double counting of concentration requirements. Faculty took the opportunity from an external accreditation review to fully examine the concentrations and instead propose 3 new concentrations which have no overlapping courses. Further details are provided in the new concentration proposals: Environmental Planning and Design (key 1421); Transportation (key 1423); and Housing, Community and Economic Development (key 1422).

All current students will be allowed to complete their BAUSP degree with their catalog year concentrations. Once Spring 2027 admits and earlier have graduated, the program code for this concentration will be deactivated. No students for Summer 2027 or later will be allowed to declare the BAUSP social justice concentration.

All of the courses in the concentration are housed in DURP. UP 476 is cross-listed with DANC and the course will now be listed on the BAUSP concentration in Environmental Planning and Design list, so no impact is projected but the dance department has been notified.

For the courses in this concentration, they are not intended to be reduced in offerings and will be used as stated:

BAUSP Core Advanced Skills Development: UP 479

BAUSP concentration in Environmental Planning and Design: UP 327, 476

BAUSP concentration in Housing, Community and Economic Development: UP 160, 260, 330, 340, 423, 473

Removed: UP 425. Course has never been offered and faculty member who developed it has left the university. The status of UP 425 is under discussion this year and new faculty hires are intended to be made which will determine the future.

Removed: UP 335. Has not been taught since SUM 17. The status of UP 335 is under discussion this year, to discern if it will be deactivated.

Enrollment

Phase Down/Elimination Enrollment

Does this program currently have enrollment?

Yes

If so, what is the anticipated term of completion?

Fall 2027

Describe how this revision or phase down/elimination will impact enrollment and degrees awarded. If this is an elimination/phase down proposal include the plans for the students left in the program.

FA 26: 2 students in the social justice concentration (3% of the current BAUSP population).
There are 31 new BAUSP students admitted for FA 26.

Since this proposal is for Fall 2027, we anticipate that the concentration will be terminated in summer 2030 after the Fall 2026 students have graduated or it has been determined that no 5th year students intend to declare the concentration.

Enrollment:

FA 26: 2
FA 25: 4
FA 24: 5
FA 23: 5
FA 22: 11
FA 21: 9

Budget

Are there budgetary implications for this revision?
