BRIEF DESCRIPTION:

The Office of Graduate and International Legal Studies wishes to eliminate the M.C.L. degree in Law (program code 1130)

JUSTIFICATION:

Since 1994, the College of Law has only awarded the LL.M. and JSD degrees at the graduate level. We wish to formalize this action by eliminating the M.C.L. degree listing and the program code for it.

BUDGETARY AND STAFF IMPLICATIONS: (See Appendix I)

There are no budgetary or staff implications, as the degree to be eliminated has not been active since 1994.
